

ABSTRACT

SAJTL, J. The Examination of Changes on Chocen educational field after Entry Czech Republic into the European Union.

Key words: education systém, employ, language qualities, managerial studies, lifelong learning.

This Bachelory work is enganded in effect European Union for moving education system in the Czech Republic. I describe just small part of spektrum, which is forging our education as a whole.

In this work is described more closely growing run on expanding language qualities, accesion of university education in managerial studies, which are finished by MBA title (Master of Business of Administration).

Next part of Bachelory work is describing lifelong learning as a necessary instrument of everyone's, who want be with a modern age and be direct and active participant of quickly developing society, not only in terms of integral European Union, but also in context worldwide events.

Whole work is writed in view to employ graduates and competitive advantage already working people with a view to European labour market.